THE HEIR OF GREAT NAVAL TRADITIONS—THE TOUCH OF GENIUS— HOW HE FOUGHT AND WHAT HE HAS ACHIEVED—A PERSONAL

London, January 29.

The Man is not less interesting than the Admiral. He is more so. It is not for whing that a man becomes an Admiral the British Navy at forty. It is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not for nothing that at forty four he is not find and now this action well again the North Sea. His title of Admiral, his K. C. B. the many positions of confidence he has held in the Navy and at the Admiralty:—all these have said at the Admiralty:—all these have seality as well as a personage. I said the seality as well as a personage. I said lest victory become whether it so much as occurred in fancy costumes.

David that the Germans would Among those at the dance were Mr. are to publish his name to the world battle. Adm ral Count von Spee, at Falkland Islands, though he withdrew n presence of what he saw to be over-shelming force, fought gallantly to the

But this German Admiral in the North Sea had not come out to fight. He had come out to repeat the infamy of Scarborough and Whitby; to canhorade defenceless towns; to kill sivilians, including women and children. He was bound, probably, for Newcastle or its neighborhood. Let us de him the honor to suppose that to him as a sea officer it was a hateful task. not murder an innocent and unresist-be population with impunity his nerve filled him. I t us dismiss him with that. These were the same ships, or Beatty has avenged. The Blücher-lies at the bottom of the sea. The Derfsinger and the Seydlitz seem just to have kept assame and affoat till they trawled into port behind the shelter of mine fields and submarines. The Germans say the Foulth formula in the field of the New York Racquet and Tennis Club. mans say the English "retreated." They have not yet found the word which de-scribes to their satisfaction the headlong skedaddle of their own squadron.

One excuse they have. The weight of One excuse they have. The weight fun fire from their cruisers is They were built to run away.

The English Admiral had the superior force, but not so far superior as to make a contest hopeless. What appened to his own ship, the Lion, proves that. She was struck and here againes were disabled by a single chance shot; and with the Lion out of chance sho ran well and fought as they ran.

mething about this man not very much after Heligoland. Perhaps : may now write more frankly. Inevitably Sir David Beatty has belevel with the standard of th is a book I would put into every American boy's hand. The column on which his statue poises in Trafalgar Square is to-day the central point of the Brittines and passions unexpressed. That the authority was there you never

The greatest value since our world began . about his profession and still less about himself. By way of inducing Sir David to break that rule, or rather his country, and a lasting inspiration. Therefore it is that greatness did not die with him, but survives, and te-day the thunder of the guns in the North the thunder of the guns in the North Sea is but an echo of those which at Sea rivals Sie Doveton and the Admiral was lost. Contrast, I suppose there is none. The air of command repressed but unmistakable, was whole British Fleet has proved himself on shore.

Among those at the dance were and and Mrs. A. Griswold Flagg, 3d, Alfred R. Conkling, Charles Kenneth (Clinton, Madison Grant, H. Gallatin Pell, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Freling fully constructed, and always sincerely fully constructed, and always sincerely care to publish his name to the world did not know and could not have known et what strength the British squadron was compose. I do not wish to press the case against him. The German commanders have as a rule shown themselves in this war men of courage and resource. But this Admiral was composed to the state of the nam Gilman Low, jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Carey, Miss Lanier Comly, M. L. Newball, Mr. and Mrs. William Baylis, Frederic Matthews, Louis W. Noel,

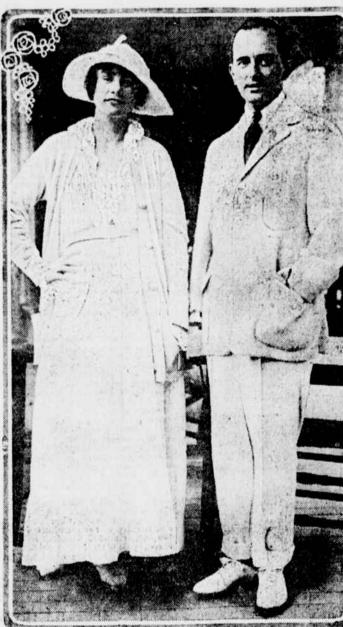

Among those who entertained at dinner before the dance were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. V. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Spedden, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Davie, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Davis and Gerrard Comly. Some of the colonists Among those who entertained at din-Gerrard Comly. Some of the colonists opened their cottages for the holiday. Mrs. Charles Henry Coster is here r the week end with her daughter, iss Maude Coster, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Pendleton Rogers are in their cot-tage on Tower Hill. Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Mason came out

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Mason came out for the day and Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Munroe entertained a number of young some of them were, that had perpetrated the slaughter of innocent noncombatants at Scarborough and the Hartlepools, pre umably under the same commander.

That unspeakable outrage Admiral
That unspeakable outrage Admiral
That unspeakable outrage and the Tennis and Racquet Club has arTanged an exhibition court tennis an exhibition court tennis to-morrow between Arthur For-

> To Speak on Electric Roads. Professor Henry H. Norris, associate editor of "The Electric Railway Journal," will speak on the mechanical and electrical departments of electric railways at Washington Irving High School to-morrow evening. Until recently will some and M. B. Clausen.
>
> Sheraton dining suite, and A. Rennedy paid $197 for a platinum bracelet set with sapphires and diamonds. Other purchasers included Mrs. R. Cantellion, C. A. Russell, W. B. Parsons, H. C. Carter, G. Peabody, W. H. Wilson and M. B. Clausen. electrical departments of electric rail-ways at Washington Irving High School to-morrow evening. Until recently to-morrow evening. Until recently Professor Norris was head of the elec-trical engineering department of Cor-

MISS CORDELIA BIDDLE AND HER FIANCE HASIER B. DUKE AT PALM BEACH

BOSTON ORCHESTRA YALE "GIRLS" TO BE AGAIN HEARD HERE FEATURE OF PLAYS

AGAIN HEARD HERE

FEATURE OF PLAYS

Barres Adds to Pleas

Barres A

ment of victory lest victory become diaster all these were Admiral which were attended by numerous

which were attended by numerous beauties to the utmost. It has in it much of its composer's native Finland, young people.

All the rooms at the clubhouse were which have sprung from Finland, soil.

the shares with nobody.

Not easy is it for a landsman to

Not easy is it for a landsman to realize the suddenness of it all.

Table the suddenness to the utmost. It has in it much of its composer's native Finland, which were attended by numerous beauties to the utmost. It has in it much of its composer's native Finland, which were attended by numerous beauties to the utmost. It has in it much of its composer's native Finland, which were attended by numerous beauties to the utmost. It has in it much of its composer's mative Finland, which were attended by numerous beauties to the utmost. It has in it much of its composer's native Finland, when the specially in its rhythms, which were attended by numerous beauties to the utmost of the suddenness to the utmost of the special parts of the utmost of the special parts of the utmost of the utmost of the utmost of the special parts of the utmost of the utmost It is a far cry indeed from the same composer's Fourth Symphony, with which Dr. Muck regaled - at his pre-vious visit, but there are so : of us who would be unwilling to concede that Sibelius has advanced over his pictures, will be shown to-hight at the edy hit, it proved to be. "Adventures on the Roof of the Longacre Theatre by James Barnes, as a benefit for the Consumers' League. Jr., Frederic Matthews, Louis W. Noel, Lichmond Talbot, Pierre Lorillard, jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pell, Mr. and Mrs. found along the 1,400 miles which the J. Insley, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lansing Mc-African animals, native life and scenery the general public in this city since Mr.

STANLEY'S ROUTE FILMED

First Showing of African

> chased from the Consumers' League, 6 bia University, and Mrs. Smith an-East Thirty-ninth Street, as well as at the Longacre box office.

ESTATES' SALE AT END

Total for Household Appointments Reaches $19,280.

The Estates' sale of household ap-pointments, which has occupied Silo's Fifth Avenue Art Galleries during the Fifth Avenue Art Galleries during the last week, closed yesterday afternoon with a total for the entire sale of $19,-280. At yesterday's session Mrs. S. D. Potter gave $800 for a platinum and diamond necklace. For $200 Miss F. C. Foster bought a diamond gypsy ring; Signor Olivotti paid $220 for an inlaid Shersiton dining suite, and A. Kennedy Sheraton dining suite, and A. Kennedy

Minimum wage legislation will be discussed from the point of view of the social worker, the manufacturer and the chance shot; and with the Lion out of action there was no longer any wide inequality between the English and German forces. But the German staged of his flight for that; nor the English Admiral for you. When the mishap beful the Lion he transferred his flag first of all to a destroyer; in the van; the post of danger in the vanishments. Admission will be $1 actually actu

TUXEDO HAS DRESS BALL inexplicable. But then, Dr. Muck's framework played these three numbers as they of the war's victims.

TUXEDO HAS DRESS BALL inexplicable. But then, Dr. Muck's framework played these three numbers as they of the war's victims.

TUXEDO HAS DRESS BALL inexplicable. But then, Dr. Muck's framework played these three numbers as they of the war's victims.

TUXEDO HAS DRESS BALL inexplicable. But then, Dr. Muck's framework played these three numbers as they of the war's victims.

TUXEDO HAS DRESS BALL inexplicable. But then, Dr. Muck's framework played these three numbers as they of the war's victims.

TUXEDO HAS DRESS BALL inexplicable. But then, Dr. Muck's framework played these three numbers as they of the war's victims.

TUXEDO HAS DRESS BALL inexplicable. But then, Dr. Muck's framework played these three numbers as they of the war's victims.

TUXEDO HAS DRESS BALL inexplicable. But then, Dr. Muck's framework played these three numbers as they played. The flood of the war's victims.

Tuxedo Park, Feb. 20.—The midding the war stelli also a New York man.

The Yale Players already have $16,-000 in a fund for building a theatre at Yale. The proceeds of all performances are set aside for this fund.

Le Grand Cannon, the Misses Collier, Stoddard Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller, Miss Marie Louise Rodewald, Hoffman Nickerson, J. S. Pettit, Will-

showing scenes in Switzers showing Mont Blane, is exicational, and attractive in its scenic ap-peal. The music was rendered by the Broadway Symphony Orchestra.

BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED

Daughter of Professor Smith

East Thirty-ninth Street; from Mrs. nounce the engagement of their daugh-Florence Kellogg, 22 East Sixty-third Street, and from Miss Bell Gurnee, 38 ter, Miss Gertrude Smith, to Lawrence Cushing Goodhue, a son of Mrs. Francis Abbot Goodhue, of Andover, Mass., who before her marriage was Miss Cushing.
Mr. Goodhue is a graduate of Harvard. '11, and of the Harvard Law School, and is a member of the Massachusetts bar, practising in Boston.
Miss Munroe Smith is the granddaughter of General Henry Shippen Huidekoper, of Philadelphia.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

Montclair, N. J., Feb. 20 .- Announcement was made to-day of the engagement of Miss Gladys Soule, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Soule, of South Mountain Avenue, and Oscar M. Bate, also of Montclair, at a tea given by Mrs. Soule. Miss Soule and Mr. Bate were guests last night at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin V Harrison, of South Mountain Avenue. Other guests at the tea were Mrs. H. Winthrop Ames couched his really Winthrop Ames couched his really a world with a programs. "I would S. Devan and Miss Harriet B. Devan, of Stamford, Conn. Miss Devan's en-gagement to Miss Soule's brother, George Soule, was announced recently.

BERNHARDT, FACING KNIFE, OFFERS AID

Actress Will Find Work for Crippled Soldiers in Her Theatre.

STAGE FOLK HERE GRIEVE FOR HER

Actors and Friends Mourn the Fact That Noted Woman Must Lose Limb.

Paris, Feb. 20.—All Paris is stirred by the publication of a letter from Sarah Bernhardt, awaiting amputation of her leg in the hospital of St. Augustin at Bordeaux, to Maurice Barres, in charge of a huge relief work here for war cripples.

The letter to M. Barres, which offers bernmann, amountment to scrippled.

The letter to M. Barres, which offers permanent employment to crippled soldiers in Sarah Bernhardt's theatre, is as follows:
"My dear friend, your last article, an appeal in behalf of the invalids of the war, arouses my deepest emotion, partly, perhaps, because I shall soon have my own leg cut off, Sunday, probably, and thus shall become, myself, a member of the stream family of the member of the great family of the mutiliated. "I could have kept my leg if I had thy; only they sprang from one who, like herself, is in the midst of suffering. It was Miss Ellen Terry, in seclusion in the country for the purpose of undergoing a serious operation on her

"My heart goes out to Mme. Sarah Bernhardt in love and sympathy," she said, "and I wish that I might do something for her in this hour. But I can think of no one who needs less courage from others, or who would be more certain to come through such an expevience triumphantly."

to Wed L. C. Goodhue.

Professor Munroe Smith, of Columia University, and Mrs. Smith aniounce the engagement of their daughter. Miss Gertrude Smith, to Lawrence "It is a terrible thing," he said, "I have sent cable messages to find out if it can be true. I wouldn't believe it. It is a dreadful thing." Stage Folk Pay Tribute.

Margaret Illington was another who knows Mme. Bernhardt personally and has cause to be grateful to her for

"I feel in the passing of Mme. Bern-"If feel in the passing of Mme. Bernhardt, if this means that," she said, "that it is a far greater misfortune to us than it could be if we looked upon her just as a human being. She has been to the stage far more than any one ever has or ever will be. She has stood a shining light to all others; and taking that away will leave a void that possibly can never be filed as long as the world exists. It is a sad moment to contemplate."

At Morris High School; William J. Kraft, at Eastern District High School, and C. Waring Stebbins, at Erasmus Hall.

DR. THOMAS BIDDLE.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—Dr. Tl.omas Biddle, one of the most prominent members of the family of that name here, is dead of pneumonia, after a to contemplate."
"We lose one of our greatest artists," serious regrets in epigrams. "I would rather see Bernhard act on one leg than most other actresses on two," he said. "But considered as a mere leg. I have seen others that would be more ceived.

The hit song was "I'm the Guy," by Cadet McGuire, '15. Cadets Ord, Gillette and Peabody, all of '15, starred in a special dancing feature.

many colors as the rainbow, and embracing scores of commercial subjects, adorn the walls of the ground and second floors of the Washington Irving High School, forming an exhibition under the direction of the Municipal Art League. It is chiefly an exhibit of Art League. It is chiefly an exhibit of German commercial art, showing German influence on American advertising.

Six oblong panels in colors caused much amusement among the visitors yesterday. Their titles are "Laughs." "Tears," "Beauty," "Purity," "Thrills" and "Surprise." There are book covers of various designs; "Newark, the City Industrial." in a hig poster: a varnish and "Surprise." There are book covers of various designs; "Newark, the City Industrial," in a big poster; a varnish advertised for submarines, which will not come off, and a big tiger standing guard at the zoo in Munich. The exhibition will be open for a week.

Free Organ Recitals Attract. Free organ recitals under the au-spices of the Department of Education spices of the Department of Education on the city's great organs every Sunday afternoon, which are attracting large audiences, will be continued through March and April. For this afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, the programme is: W. A. Goldsworthy, at Washington Irving High School; Wenzel A. Raboch, at Morris High School; William J. Kraft, at Eastern District High School, and C. Waring Stebbins, at Erasmus Hall.

here, is dead of pneumonia, after a week's illness at his home, 122 South Twenty-second Street. He was sixtyone years old. The news of Dr. Biddle's death was a great surprise to day, even to some of his relatives. He contracted a cold Sunday, and on Monday his condition

Sunday, and on Monday his condition became worse and fast developed into pneumonia, of which he died.

He was a brother-in-law of Richard M. Cadwalader, president of the Philadelphia Club, of which Dr. Biddle had been a member for more than thirty years. He was also a member of the Rabbit and Racquet clubs, Sons of the American Revolution, and of the Society of Colonial Wars. He was born in this city, was graduated from Prince-

"IL TROVATORE"

Old Opera.

By H. E. KREHBIEL.

The most surprising thing about yesterday afternoon's production of "Il Trovatore" at the Metropolitan Opera House was the fact that Mr. Gatti and Mr. Toscanini thought it necessary to give so much thought and time and money to its By this we do not mean Notices of marriages and creaths must that the opera is not deserving of high be accompanied by full name and address money to it: By this we do not mean respect from every lover of the lyric drama. It is. He would be a very imperfect Wagnerite who would not admit that fact, just as he would be a very imperfect student of the lyric Haven, Henry C. drama who would not recognize the Heye, Marie A L. opera's absurdities, in spite of the most extravagant efforts to gloss them over. It is a wise procedure to restudy old operas, because of the evil influence which humdrum and conventional performances have upon them. But it is not always wise to depart from tradition simply on the theory that changes will give value or interest to the work.

BALLARD—Frederick E. Ballard, suddenly, on February 20, 1915. Notice of funeral hereafter.

BRYCE—On Friday, at Pittsfield, Mass., Clara, widow of William Bryce and daughter of the late Thomas Tileaton. Funeral services from her late to the work.

There were new pictures in the opera yesterday, but "Il Trovatore" is not an opera that depends for even a fraction of its interest on the stagesets. Let the fact that the new pictmutilisted.

"I could have kept my leg if I had been willing to live stretched on a sofa. The surgeons asked me to give them six months longer before performing the operation, but I refused. Why? Because I am getting homesick for Paris. Because longing for the theatre fills me; because I would tather be mutilisted than powerless. The sooner it will be the better. I cannot longer remain here helpless on my back.

"Work is my life. I am determined to get back to work at once, to regain my wonted gayety and high spirits and to use again all that force of art which keeps me up, and which will keep me up until I pass into the world of the far yonder. Therefore I wish to tell you that my son and I have four positions for your invalids in our theatre.

"Forgive me for speaking so much about myself, but you will understand why I have done so. Think of me a little on Sunday morning, or whenever they will cut off my leg. Ir all admiration for you and your work."

Barres Adds to Plea.

M. Barres, in publishing the letter, gives Paris not only a reflection of the stage-sets. Let the fact that the new picts use were perty and appropriate and effective be recorded with gratitude; it did not take the asthmatic gasting. The fact that the new picts were percorded with gratitude; it did not take the asthmatic gasting. The fact that the new picts were percorded with gratitude; it did not take the asthmatic garden.

"Mine. Sardh to the fact that the new picts use were perty and appropriate and effective be recorded with gratitude; it did not take the asthmatic garden.

"Mine. Sardh to the fact that the new picts use were perty and appropriate and effective be recorded with gratitude; it did not take the asthmatic garden.

It is not likely that anybody is going to quarrel with "II Trovatore." No doubt there were some who could recall the original Manrico, Signor and the prima in the prima is not only the prima in the prima is not only the prima in the audience who remembered its first performers here some interpretation of the land tion of entertaining large parties at the dinner.

Among the patronesses are Mrs. John Purroy Mitchel, Mrs. Robert Adamson, Mrs. Benjamin H. Duke, Mrs. S. R. Bertron, Mrs. J. D. Beale, Mrs. Frank B. Carpenter, Mrs. R. B. Dula, Mrs. W. W. Fuller, Mrs. Thomas S. Fuller, Mrs. Stuart V. Gibboney, Mrs. Walter L. McCorkle, Mrs. H. Snowden Marshall, Mrs. E. E. Meavhem, Mrs. J. S. Newell, Mrs. Henry Pearson, Mrs. Theodore H. Price, Mrs. Stephen L. Snowden, Mrs. A. S. Sullivan and Mrs. Lewis B. Woodruff.

OBITUARY.

BYRON B. JOHNSON.

Waltham, Mass., Feb. 20.—Ex-Mayor CARGILL, Henry L., February 19.

lyron B. Johnson, Waltham's first Funeral from 851 Amsterdam av., Monday. Byron B. Johnson, Waltham's first Mourns for Bernhardt.

Mourns for Bernhardts

Mayor, died this morning, after an Illness of less than three hours. His Mayor, died this morning, after an Illness of less than three hours. His Mayor, died this morning, after an Illness of less than three hours.

Monday.

CROSIE, Agrill. Henry L. Agrillan as deet heart disease of less than three hours.

Monday.

CROS Mr. Johnson was a member of the first convention to nominate Abraham Lincoln for the Presidency and received the second commission issued by Lincoln in the United States mail service west of the Mississippi. He organized the first hospital in Iowa for wounded soldiers of the Civil War. He returned to Massachusetts after the war and attended Boston University School of Law. He was graduated in 1870 and was admitted to the bar in 1873. Alexander C., at the Audubon

WILLIAM G. MORRISON.

William Griffeth Morrison, aged seventy-four, died yesterday at his home, 167 West Ninety-first Street, after a four days' illness, from pneumonia. He was born in St. John. Canada. For thirty-two years he had been head cashier for Clarence Whit-man & Co., 39 Leonard Street. He leaves two sons, Dr. M. Howe Morrison and Palmer B. Morrison. The funeral will be held Tuesday at 8 o'clock p. m. from the home of his son, 176 West from the home of his son, 176 West Ninety-first Street. Burial will be at Woodlawn on Wednesday.

DR. FRANK FULLER.

Dr. Frank Fuller, eighty-eight years old, who died at the Hotel Irving on Friday, was born in Boston. He was the son of John Smith Fuller and Anne Guppey Hansom. Dr. Fuller's first wife was Miss Mary Francis Preble, who died in 1868. In 1870 he married Miss Anne W. Thompson, of New York, who died in 1906. Dr. Fuller is survived by one daughter, Ida New York, who died in 1990, the first start of the ler is survived by one daughter, Ida QUINN, Joseph, 352 Court st., February 18. Funeral to-day.

LYDIA A. DURYEE.

Hempstead, Feb. 20.—Lydia A. Duryee, widow of Nelson H. Duryee, died at Nassau Hospital yesterday from pneumonia at the age of seventy-nine years. She was a member of one of the oldest families on Long Island, and was householdest families on Long Island, and was HURD, Martin V. B., 170 Broadway, HURD, Martin V. B., 170 Broadway. oldest families on Long Island, and was known throughout Nassau County. She leaves two children, Cornelius A. Dur-yee and Mrs. Annie R. Norris. The funeral will be held from her home in Front Street, Monday, at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. William H. Surgwin and the Rev. F. M. Kerr will officiate, and burial will be in Greenfield Cemetery.

MRS. CLARA TILESTON BRYCE. [By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Pittsfield, Mass., Feb. 20. - Mrs. Clara Pittsheld, Mass, Feb. 20.—birs, Clara Tileston Bryce, eighty-seven years of age, died at her country place, Fort Hill, this morning. Mrs. Bryce was born in New York and had spent prac-tically all of her life in that city. Her husband, William Bryce, who died twenty-five years ago, was one of the prominent residents of New York.

In 1902 Mrs. Bryce and family bought the Fort Hill property of 101 acres on Office. 20 East 20d St. N. Y.

the south shore of Onota Lake, as a summer residence, but for three years have made it an all the year home. Mrs. Bryce leaves a son, William

FULL OF SURPRISES

Have made it an all the year home.

Mrs. Bryce leaves a son, William
Mrs. Bryce

BEARDSLEY PETERSON—On Febru-ary 20, 1915, at the home of the bride's mother, Interlaken, N. Y., by the Rev. E. B. Van Aradale, Helen, daughter of Caroline W. and the late Abram C. Peterson, to Porter Beards-ley, of Auburn, N. Y.

Newell, Mary O.S. Tomroy, Sary Edna Shaw, Imogen R. Strong, Robert A. Hutchins, Rev. John Taylor, Catherine L.

BRYCE—On Friday, at Pittsfield, Mass., Clara, widow of William Bryce and daughter of the late Thomas Tilea-ton. Funeral services from her late residence, 20 West 54th st., New York, Tuesday morning, February 23, at 11 o'clock. at 11 o'clock.

CORT—Suddenly, in Washington, D. C., at the residence of her brother-in-law, William H. Baldwin, Ella W., daughter of the late Nicholas L. and Amanda H. Cort, of this city. Notice of funeral hereafter. HAVEN—At Stockbridge, Mass., Friday, February 19, Dr. Henry Ceeil Haven, son of the late Henry P. Haven, of New London, Conn. Funeral Monday, February 22, at St. Paul's Church, Stockbridge, Mass., at 2:30.

HEYE-On Thursday, February 18, after a brief illness, Marie Antolnette Lawrence, widow of Gustav Heye, and daughter of the late Alexander M. Lawrence.

Funeral private.

HUTCHINS-At St. Luke's Hospital, 20th day of February, 1915, the Rev. John Hutchins, pastor of the First Congregational Church, Litchfield, Conn. Notice of funeral hereafter. MORRISON-On Saturday, February 20, of pneumonia, William Griffith Morrison, in his 74th year. Funeral services at the residence of his son, 167 West 91st st., Tuesday evening, February 23, at 8 o'clock. Interment private. St. John (N. B., Canada) papers please copy.

NEWELL.—Mary Overing Sinclair New-ell, widow of the late Commander John Stark Newell, U. S. N., sudden-ly, on February 18. Funeral services at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, 139 West 45th st., New York, on Mon-day, Feb. 22, at 11 a. m. Interment at Mount Auburn, Cambridge, Mass. POMROY -On February 19, 1915, at her residence, 449 Park av., Mary Edna wife of the late William H. Pomroy and daughter of the late E. G. Faile. Funeral service will be held at St. Bartholomew's Chapel, Madison av. and 44th st., on Monday, February 22, at 10:30 a. m.

SHAW-At Hackensack, N. J., on February 19, 1915, Imagen Repplier, wife of William Merril Snaw and daughter of the late George S. Repplier, of Philadelphia. Funeral private. Interment at Elizabeth, N. J.

STRONG-Robert A. Strong. Funeral Sunday, 2 p. m., at late residence, 270 Lookout av., Hackensack, N. J. TAYLOR—On February 19, Catherine Louise, daughter of the late John and Helen Secore Couzens. Ser-vices at residence of her brother-in-law, William H. Nichols, 952 Ander-son av., West 162d st., Sunday, Feb-ruary 21, at 2 p. m. Interment Sleepy Hollow, Monday a. m.

MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX. BARNETT, Joseph, 66 West 92d st., February 19. Funeral Monday. BERRY, Evelyn Frances, 8 West Burn-side av., February 19. Funeral notice later.

BRUNJES, Martin, 656 East 158th st.,

SAYERS, Alexander C., at the Audubon Sanatorium, 8 St. Nicholas Place, February 19. Funeral Monday. SCHWARTZ, Laskar, 514 West 134th st., February 18. Funeral private. his SMITH, William H., 202 West 86th st.

19. Funeral at Norwalk, TEITTER, Ezra, 824 St. Nicholas av., February 19. Funeral to-day. BROOKLYN.

BARRY, Edward M., 127 Berry st., Feb-ruary 19. Funeral Monday. BENDER, John C. F., 212 Van Sielen av., February 19. Funeral to-day. CONWAY, Catherine, 1195 Rogers av., February 19. Funeral Monday. DOWNEY, William E., 81 Clermont av., February 19. Funeral Monday.

NEW JERSEY. DAVIS, Thomas, 477 Grove st., Jersey City, February 18. Funeral to-day.

HURD, Martin V. B., 170 Broadway, Paterson, February 18. Funeral pri-vate. MEYER, Caroline S., 12 Voorhees av., Newark, February 18. Funeral to-day.

O'CONNOR, Margaret, 44 3d st., New-ark, February 19. Funeral Tuesday. PETERS, Ida, 377 Hawthorne av., New-ark, February 18. Funeral Monday. SACK, Frances R., 1674 Boulevard, Jer-sey City, February 17. Funeral to-day.

SEERY, Mary A., 261 York st., Jersey City, February 18. Funeral Monday. WILLIS, Edmund B., Jersey City, Feb-ruary 18. Funeral private.